

Learn First: Meet the Animals

Look at each picture and say its name. Then turn the page and play! (1 of 2)

Dog

Dogs bark to say hello or to warn us. A dog can smell things we cannot.

Cat

Cats meow to talk to people, and purr when they feel happy and safe.

Sheep

Sheep say baa. Their woolly coats are cut every year to make warm clothes.

Goat

Goats bleat, a bit like sheep. They are great climbers and love to nibble leaves.

Horse

A horse neighs. Horses can sleep standing up!

Donkey

A donkey brays: hee-haw! Donkeys are strong and help carry heavy loads.

Rooster

The rooster crows cock-a-doodle-doo, often early in the morning.

Lion

A lion's roar is so loud it can be heard far, far away. Lions live in family groups.

Elephant

Elephants trumpet through their long trunks. India is home to many elephants.

Frog

Frogs croak, most of all after rain. They start life as tiny tadpoles.

Owl

Owls hoot at night. They can turn their heads a long way round.

Goose

Geese honk loudly, especially when they fly together in a V shape.

Peacock

The peacock is India's national bird. It calls loudly, often before rain.

Crow

Crows say caw caw. They are very clever birds and remember faces.
